

One of the Lucky Ones

By: Mike Stanley – Member, DNS

Early October I had marked in my calendar book to order the 25th Anniversary silver eagle set.

On October 27th, I waited until noon and started calling. All I got was a busy signal. Over and over, using the speed dial, then the redial function to no avail. Then I start thinking to myself, “It’s 3 PM, not noon on the East Coast! Damn!!” I probably missed out on this offer due to my own stupidity.

So I turned on the computer and lo and behold, as soon as I clicked on the item and put in the required information for payment, the Mint sent me a confirmation number! “It must be a fluke!” I said to myself. About a week later, the Mint sent me an email saying the set was back ordered and that delivery was to be November 24th. Early on the morning of November 17th, there was a knock at the door. It was UPS with my 25th Anniversary Silver Eagle Set!

I truly was one of the lucky ones!
